Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The board of directors ("Board") of Hap Seng Plantations Holdings Berhad ("HSP" or the "Company") is committed to foster a corporate governance culture that is grounded on the hallmarks of accountability, objectivity and transparency. As fiduciaries, the Board members are fully cognisant of the need to discharge their duties and responsibilities with unfettered judgment, due care and skill at all times. The Board is responsible for governing the business and affairs of the Company. The Board sets the strategic direction of HSP and monitors the outcome of efforts to reach that direction. The Board institutes regular reviews and approves the objectives, strategies, business plans and monitors performance against established plans. The Business Plan 2022 was approved by the Board during the Board meeting held on 24 November 2021. The Board has also established key performance indicators to define, measure and monitor the performance and progress towards achieving the Company's goals. In setting the "tone from the top", the Board is committed to drive ethics and HSP's cultural values amongst employees. Honesty and integrity are key values as the Board believes that the success of HSP's business is built on the foundations of trust and confidence. Board Committees are established by the Board to assist the Board with oversight functions in selected responsibility areas. Managing director of the Company ("Managing Director") and executive/senior management team ("Management") are responsible for implementing policies and strategies of the Board and overseeing HSP's operations. The demarcation of responsibilities between the tripartite parties of the Board, Board Committees and Management is outlined in the board charter of HSP ("Board Charter"). While the Board delegates its responsibility in accordance with the matters reserved in the board charter, the Board at all times exercises collective oversight function of the Board Committees and Management.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.4

The Chairman of the board should not be a member of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee or Remuneration Committee

Note: If the board Chairman is not a member of any of these specified committees, but the board allows the Chairman to participate in any or all of these committees' meetings, by way of invitation, then the status of this practice should be a 'Departure'.
Application	: Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	: Presently, the Chairman is a member of the Audit Committee, Nominating Committee and Remuneration Committee ("Board Committees"). Upon due analysis, the Board recognises the perceived or potential, although not factual, risk of self-review by the Chairman assuming membership of the Board Committees. This being the case, the Nominating Committee will continue to do the necessary in reviewing and recommending the appropriate candidates to the Board to replace the Chairman's membership in the Board Committees, which process may take up to two years.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	: Nominating Committee would review and recommend suitable Board members to replace of the Chairman in various Board Committees.
Timeframe	: Within 2 years

Intended Outcome

Practice 1.5

The board is supported by a suitably qualified and competent Company Secretary to provide sound governance advice, ensure adherence to rules and procedures, and advocate adoption of corporate governance best practices.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is supported by professionally qualified and competent Company Secretaries, namely, Ms Cheah Yee Leng and Ms Lim Guan Nee. The Board is regularly apprised and advised by the Company Secretaries on statutory and regulatory requirements, roles and responsibility as well as pertinent governance matters. In discharging their role as counsels to the Board, the Company Secretaries also ensures proper supply of relevant information as well as the accuracy and adequacy of meeting materials, organising and facilitating the convening of board meetings, meetings of the board committees, general meetings, in consultation with the chairman, recording of meeting minutes and resolutions of the Board and Board Committees. The Company Secretaries also serve as a focal point for stakeholders' communication and engagement on corporate governance issues. The Company Secretaries constantly keep themselves abreast of changes in the realm of corporate governance through continuous professional development. During the year 2021, they attended various external training in relation to changes in regulatory requirements. Process flows on the operational processes and procedures of the secretarial function have been put in place to guide the day-to-day running of the function. Detailed information on the functional accountabilities of the Company Secretaries is encapsulated in the Board Charter.

Practice 1.6

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	Board members are given appropriate materials in advance of each Board and Board Committee meetings. For Board meetings, these materials include but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Annual and quarterly financial statements;</li><li>• Report on current trading and business issues from the managing director;</li><li>• Proposals for capital expenditures (if any);</li><li>• Proposals for acquisitions and disposals not in the ordinary course of business (if any);</li><li>• Annual budget or business plan;</li><li>• Risk management status report;</li><li>• Management discussion and analysis to be incorporated in the Company's annual report;</li><li>• Statement on risk management and internal control;</li><li>• Sustainability statement;</li><li>• Corporate governance report and statement; and</li><li>• Reports of the Board Committees.</li></ul> These meeting materials and notice to the meeting are furnished to the Board members at least five business days in advance of the meeting. Exceptions may be made in certain ad-hoc or urgent instances when directors unanimously consent to a shorter notice period and elapsed timeframe for the provision of meeting materials. In order to ensure directors are well-informed of the proceedings that took place, the minutes of the meetings are recorded by the Company Secretaries and circulated to the Board members in a timely manner upon conclusion the relevant meeting. The minutes of meetings record the decisions, including the key deliberations, rationale for each decision made, and any significant concerns or dissenting views.

	In addition to the provision of meeting materials, the Board also authorises directors to seek independent professional advice, if necessary, at the Company's expense in the furtherance of their duties (as stated in paragraph 15.04 of Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad). Prior to incurring the professional fees, the directors shall obtain written approval from the Managing Director on the nature and the fees of the professional advice to be sought.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In tandem with HSP's aspiration to instil and promote appropriate standards of conduct and ethical practices, the Board has established a code of conduct and ethics ("Code of Conduct") that is to be strictly complied with by the Board members and Management. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the Code of Conduct are in addition to any other obligations imposed on the Board members by any applicable rules, laws and regulations. The Code of Conduct of the Company covers the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Principles and values such as honesty and integrity;</li> <li>• Compliance with rules, laws and regulations (including but not limited to abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering);</li> <li>• Conflicts of interest;</li> <li>• Confidentiality;</li> <li>• Whistle-blowing;</li> <li>• Corruption and bribery practices;</li> <li>• Use of the Company's assets; and</li> <li>• Money laundering.</li> </ul> The Code of Conduct is reviewed periodically by the Board and published on the Company's website.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.2

The board establishes, reviews and together with management implements policies and procedures on whistleblowing.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board, has formalised a whistle-blowing policy that is applicable to all Board members, employees, business associates and external providers (“said Parties”) of the Group. The whistle-blowing policy outlines avenues for the said Parties to raise legitimate concerns relating to potential breaches of business conduct, non-compliance with legal and regulatory requirements as well as other malpractices. The whistle-blowing policy is underpinned by good faith in reporting, protection from reprisal as well as strict confidentiality of the whistle-blower’s identity. Any of the said Parties who believes or has reasonable grounds to believe that inappropriate business conduct has occurred or is occurring should report their concerns using the available reporting channels as stated in the anti-bribery and corruption policy. Such reports when made in good faith shall be assessed and looked into in a timely manner. The whistle-blowers must seek to set out as much information as possible in the report to facilitate and enable proper and objective investigations. The whistle-blowers and/or their interests will not in any way be implicated or impaired whatever the outcome of the investigation is, so long as the reports have been made in good faith. The whistle-blowing policy is reviewed by the Board periodically and published on the Company’s website.

Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board and Management are still in the process of identifying and adopting suitable sustainability KPIs into their performance review process.
		Please provide an alternative practice and explain how the alternative practice meets the intended outcome.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Measurement to be based on identified sustainability KPIs
Timeframe	:	Within 3 years

Intended Outcome

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	Sustainability management in HSP is spearheaded by Mr. Kee Keow Chong, General Manager of Agronomy. Mr. Kee to ensures the Sustainability Framework is adhered within the HSP and its subsidiaries ("Group") and continuously engages with relevant internal and external stakeholders such as employees, customers, suppliers, regulators, investors and industry association/ civil society to ensure the Group's sustainability policies remain relevant and identify new ones that could add value to the businesses and stakeholders.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nominating Committee undertakes periodic review of their Board composition and tenure of each Board members. None of the independent non-executive directors have served the Board for more than nine years as at 31 December 2021. During the Nominating Committee meeting held on 23 February 2022, the Nominating Committee conducted directors' self and peer assessment to evaluate and determine the respective performance and eligibility of the following directors who are to retire in accordance with the Company's constitution to stand for re-election at the forthcoming annual general meeting to be held on 25 May 2022 ("AGM 2022"):- Clause 116: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Dato' Mohammed Bin Haji Che Hussein (Independent Non-executive Chairman);</li><li>• Mr. Lee Wee Yong (Executive Director);</li><li>• Tan Sri Amirsham Bin A Aziz (Independent Non-executive Director); and</li><li>• Mr. Andrew John Barber (Independent Non-executive Director).</li></ul> Clause 122: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Datuk Hamisa Binti Samat (Non-independent Non-executive Director).</li></ul> Nominating Committee also reviewed the independence of the above independent directors. In the Nominating Committee's evaluation, they took into account the skills, experience, integrity, tenure, competency, commitment and contribution of the respective director. Upon due deliberation, the Nominating Committee concluded that each such retiring director has performed to the expectation of the committee as well as satisfied the independence requirements. Accordingly, the Board approved of the recommendations of the Nominating Committee, namely such retiring directors are eligible to stand for re-election during the AGM 2022.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Independent directors contribute the element of detached impartiality to the decision-making process and oversight function of the Board. Under their watchful eyes and inquiring minds, the presence of independent directors allows the Board to apply heightened professional vigilance and appropriately challenge Management in an unbiased manner. Recognising the value that independent directors add to the Board and the Company as a whole, the Board has a balance composition of independent directors. The Board presently comprises six independent directors, two non-independent non-executive directors and four executive directors including the Managing Director. As additional measures to safeguard independence, the Board has formalised a Board Charter which clearly sets out matters reserved for the Board as well as the non-overlaps of independent directors between HSP and its subsidiaries. These mechanisms jointly allow for the relevant checks and balances to ensure that no one individual director has unfettered powers or assumes a dominant position in the Board's decision making process. In addition, the higher nomination of non-executive directors compared to executive directors helps to mitigate any possible conflicts of interest between the policy-making process and the day-to-day management of the Company.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	None of the independent non-executive directors have served the Board for more than nine years as at 31 December 2021.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board regularly reviews its composition with the aim to ensure that it achieves a diverse board which is able to bring to bear a breadth of perspectives. In sourcing for suitable candidates, the Company takes into account the benefits of having different facets of diversity including gender, age, ethnicity, nationality, professional background, skills and experience. The Board is currently made up of members with a mixed skill-sets, knowledge and experience (e.g. plantations, accounting, legal, finance, economics, marketing, and business management), cultural background (Malay, Chinese and British) and age (range between 53 - 74). All the directors of HSP do not hold more than five directorships in listed issuers. This is to ensure that his/her competing time commitments would not impair his/her ability to discharge his/her duties effectively. The appointment of senior management is also based on predetermined criteria of skill sets and leadership qualities, driven by their respective job descriptions. HSP has also put in place human resource programmes which seek to address the need for capable individuals at the senior management level, taking into account the different dimensions of diversity.

------------------	---	--	--

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	At present, appointments to the Board are decided by the members of the Board based on recommendations of the Nominating Committee. Directors' network and referrals from incumbent Directors and business associates are the primary means to source for Directors at HSP as they represent a tried and tested method of sourcing high-calibre directors with a sound understanding of the business imperatives. The directors' appointment process is carried out based on methodical and robust process undertaken by the Nominating Committee. Candidates are thoroughly assessed based on their competence, integrity, character, time commitment and experience as stated in paragraph 2.20A of Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad and board charter.

Measure	:	As and when a Board vacancy should arise in the future, in addition to obtaining referrals from directors, business associates and Management, the Board will utilise independent source such as directors' registry to select candidates to be appointed.
Timeframe	:	Within 3 years or such time when such Board vacancy should arise

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The profile for each director is set out in the Company's annual report. Details provided in the director's profiles include the directors' shareholding in the Company, their current and past directorship, their working experience and etc. The information for the directors who are standing for re-election during the AGM 2022 and the reasons for the Board to support the re-election of directors are disclosed in the explanatory notes to the agenda of the AGM 2022.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: Facilitated by the Nominating Committee, HSP conducted an annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the Board, its committees and each individual director for the financial year ended 31 December 2021. The process is carried out via questionnaires, using a self and peer-rating model. Assessment criteria revolved around the mix and composition of the Board and Board Committees, quality of information and decision making and boardroom activities.  Key findings of the assessments for FYE 31 December 2021 were summarised as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• That board members have participated in effective and constructive board deliberations, which facilitated and enabled the making of informed board decisions;</li><li>• The size of the board is too big; and</li><li>• To have a business strategy meeting at plantation office in Sabah.</li></ul>

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has put in place remuneration policy and procedures which are premised on the need for the remuneration practices of the Company to be performance-based and competitive, thereby enabling the Company to attract and retain high-calibre directors and senior management. Executive directors hold the highest level of management responsibility and operational decision-making authority within the Company. The remuneration components have been structured to link rewards to corporate and individual performance. The performance of executive directors and senior management team is measured by the achievement of the Group's objectives. Non-executive directors help to mitigate any possible conflict of interest between the policy-making process and the day-to-day management of the Company. The remuneration policy for non-executive director is to ensure that the remuneration commensurate with their respective responsibilities and commitments to the Board and the Group. Remuneration policies and procedures are periodically reviewed by the Board and have been made available on the Company's website.

Practice 7.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has established a Remuneration Committee which comprises solely non-executive directors and a majority of independent directors. The Remuneration Committee serves to assist the Board in developing and administering a fair and transparent procedure for setting policy on remuneration of executive directors and senior management as well as non-executive directors. During the Remuneration Committee meeting held on 24 November 2021, the committee reviewed the executive directors and senior management's emoluments inclusive of benefits for the financial year ending 31 December 2022 and bonus for the financial year ended 31 December 2021. Such review was to ensure that the remuneration package of executive directors and senior management remain attractive and in line with the industry forecast for 2021/2022 for the average salary increment and bonus. After taking into account the overall satisfactory the Group's performance and the contributions of the individual executive directors and senior management, the Remuneration Committee recommended the proposed increment and bonus payable to executive directors and senior management to the Board for approval. The level of remuneration for non-executive directors is determined based on the level of expertise, experience, responsibilities undertaken and time commitment required of the non-executive directors. Pursuant to section 230(1) of the Companies Act 2016, the Company shall at every annual general meeting ("AGM") approve of the fees payable to the directors of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Remuneration Committee is responsible for conducting a regular review of the fees payable to non-executive directors and members of the Board Committees. The Audit Committee has policies and procedures to assess the suitability, objectivity and independence of the external auditor to safeguard the quality and reliability of audited financial statements.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Audit Committee has put in place policies and procedures to assess the suitability, objectivity and independence of the external auditor. Prior to making a recommendation on the continuance of the incumbent external auditor, the Audit Committee performs an annual assessment on the objectivity, qualifications, expertise, resources and effectiveness of the external auditor. The assessment of the Audit Committee is supplemented by feedback gathered from senior finance personnel across HSP focusing on a range of factors that the Audit Committee considers as relevant to audit quality. The Audit Committee has also taken into consideration the nature and extent of the non-audit services rendered and the appropriateness of the level of fees. Provisions of non-audit services by the external auditor, Messrs KPMG PLT were reviewed to ascertain whether such provision of services would impair the auditor's independence or objectivity. Disclosure on the nature and extent of non-audit services are made in the Notes to the Financial Statements (Annual Report). For the audit of the financial year ended 31 December 2021, Messrs KPMG PLT has also provided the Audit Committee with a written assurance confirming that they were and had been, independent throughout the conduct of the audit engagement in accordance with the terms of all relevant professional and regulatory requirements.

Intended Outcome

Shareholders are able to participate, engage the board and senior management effectively and make informed voting decisions at General Meetings.

Practice 13.1

Notice for an Annual General Meeting should be given to the shareholders at least 28 days prior to the meeting.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises the significance of the AGM as a platform for direct and meaningful communication between the Board and the Company's shareholders. As such, the Board strives to ensure that shareholders are accorded with sufficient time to consider the resolutions that will be discussed and decided upon at the AGM. In this respect, the notice to the AGM in 2021 was provided at least 28 days prior to the AGM which was held on 24 May 2021. This goes above and beyond Section 316(2) of Companies Act 2016 and paragraph 7.15 of Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad which call for a 21-days notice period. The notice for the AGM outlines the resolutions to be tabled during the meeting and is accompanied with explanatory notes and background information where applicable to shed clarity on the matters that will be decided at the AGM. The notice of AGM is placed in a nationally circulating newspaper, the Company and Bursa Securities' website. A letter will be sent out to shareholders notifying them the venue, date and time of the AGM as well the relevant website to download the annual report and circular to shareholders.

Practice 13.3

Listed companies should leverage technology to facilitate–

- voting including voting in absentia; and
- remote shareholders' participation at general meetings.

Listed companies should also take the necessary steps to ensure good cyber hygiene practices are in place including data privacy and security to prevent cyber threats.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The AGM 2021 was conducted by way of a fully virtual meeting with its broadcast venue at Kinabalu Room, Ground Floor, Menara Hap Seng, Jalan P. Ramlee, 50250 Kuala Lumpur. Pursuant to clause 77 of the Company's constitution, general meetings may be held at more than one venue using any technology that enables the members to participate and to exercise the members' rights to speak and vote at the meeting. Shareholders participated in the AGM 2021 virtually, including submission of questions for response prior to remote voting. In accordance with paragraph 8.29A(1) of Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad, all resolutions had been carried out by poll voting. The appointed independent scrutineer, GovernAce Advisory &amp; Solutions Sdn Bhd, had validated all the votes during the AGM 2021. To enable the shareholders to participate at AGM 2021 and exercise their votes effectively, administration guide on how to register, appoint proxy, participate and vote remotely via RPEV was sent to all the shareholders together with the notice of AGM and published on the Company's website.

Practice 13.4

The Chairman of the board should ensure that general meetings support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. The engagement should be interactive and include robust discussion on among others the company's financial and non-financial performance as well as the company's long-term strategies. Shareholders should also be provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions during the general meeting and all the questions should receive a meaningful response.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: Shareholders are encouraged to participate in AGM via virtual meeting. At the commencement of AGM, the Chairman will advise members, corporate representative and proxies present virtually at the meeting of their right to ask questions and vote on the resolutions set out in the notice of AGM. Shareholders and proxies are also encouraged to submit their written questions at least one week before the AGM, so that they could be adequately dealt with during the AGM. Such written questions could either be (a) emailed to the Company at inquiry@hapseng.com or (b) deposited at the Reception Counter @ Ground Floor of Menara Hap Seng (Attention: Company Secretary) or (c) submitted at virtual meeting portal during the proceeding of AGM. At the commencement of AGM 2021, the Chairman duly advised the shareholders that they were encouraged to submit their questions or queries in the query box of PREV throughout the AGM proceeding. The questions and the corresponding replies were read out by the Chairman during the AGM. All the directors of the Company including the chairman of the Audit Committee, Nominating Committee and Remuneration Committee, external auditors and Management members will attend the general meeting to respond to the shareholders' queries. Minutes of the AGM as well as questions and answers posted by the shareholders are made available on the Company's website.

Practice 13.5

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: Boardroom was appointed as poll administrator to provide services of remote participation and electronic voting facilities (“RPEV”). It was live streamed for access via https://web.lumiagm.com .  Shareholders were provided the administration guide on how to register, appoint proxy, participate and vote remotely via RPEV together with the notice of AGM 2021.  The Company has closely monitored the RPEV during AGM 2021 to ensure a seamless execution of AGM 2021 and also a smooth interaction between the Company and shareholders or proxies.  The Chairman shared at the AGM 2021 on questions submitted by Minority Shareholders Watch Group and shareholders. The questions and the corresponding replies were also read out during the AGM 2021.  The poll results were verified by the scrutineer, GovernAce Advisory & Solutions Sdn Bhd and the Chairman declared the resolutions were duly passed.
